This restriction does not limit MHSD’s right to use or disclose data obtained from any source, including the Proposer, without restrictions.”

Further, to protect such data, each page containing such data shall be specifically identified and marked “CONFIDENTIAL”.

Proposers must be prepared to defend the reasons why the material should be held confidential. If a competing Proposer or other person seeks review or copies of another Proposer's confidential data, MHSD will notify the owner of the asserted data of the request. If the owner of the asserted data does not want the information disclosed, it must agree to indemnify MHSD and hold MHSD harmless against all actions or court proceedings that may ensue (including attorney's fees), which seek to order MHSD to disclose the information. If the owner of the asserted data refuses to indemnify and hold MHSD harmless, MHSD may disclose the information.

If your proposal contains confidential information, you should also submit a redacted copy along with your proposal. When submitting your redacted copy, you should clearly mark the cover as such - “REDACTED COPY” - to avoid having this copy reviewed by an evaluation committee member. The redacted copy should also state which sections or information has been removed.”
