FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MHSD Announces Annual Public Forums to Update Community on Strategic Plan

NEW ORLEANS, LA - Metropolitan Human Services District will be holding three public forums in Orleans, Plaquemines and St. Bernard parishes to update community partners and residents on its strategic plan and accomplishments for this fiscal year.

“MHSD has accomplished many milestones over the past year and we want to make sure we share that information,” said Dr. Rochelle Head-Dunham, MHSD Executive and Medical Director. “We also want to ensure that our community partners and persons served have the opportunity to ask any questions they may have or voice any concerns.”

The public forums begin Tuesday, May 28 and will continue through Thursday, May 30. These forums are informational sessions allowing MHSD to share new developments within the agency with the public. To register, please visit <https://mhsdpublicforum.eventbrite.com>
